Back to the Streets Say NO to U.S. wars!

Actions took place in more than 70 areas across the US and Canada

Bronx

Oakland

Minneapolis

Stop Washington's war moves toward Russia and China
Stop endless wars: Iraq, Syria, Somalia, Palestine,
Yemen, everywhere

So, it is extremely important that our actions took place and it is extremely important that they continue. In Canada, a coalition was developed to build the actions that has the potential of strengthen their movement and, in the US, we must do the same. Although, the major news media ignored our actions, we were in the streets and visible and are stronger for it.

If your group is not a member of UNAC, it is more important than ever that it joins. In unity, there is strength. To have your peace or social justice group join UNAC, please go here: <https://www.unacpeace.org/join.html>.

Hands off Haiti

UNAC statement on the situation in Haiti

10/17/22

The United National Antiwar Coalition (UNAC) rejects any and all calls for new occupations of Haiti. United States and Canadian military are already on the ground in the capital of Port au Prince under the guise of providing security from gangs when they are in fact repeating the same old playbook, asserting control of Haiti against the will of its citizens.

The people of Haiti have protested for eight weeks straight against IMF austerity measures and against the United States and United Nations imposed puppet government. Yet the show of popular opposition has been relegated by the corporate media, American politicians, and many world leaders to the sphere of criminal activity. [\[read more\]](#)

Use join us in Washington, DC on November 5th for the rally and march and on November 6 for the Black is Back Coalition conference. This year the Black is Back Coalition and their conference takes on a special meaning in that it is a way to express our solidarity with the leaders of the Black is Back Coalition and the Cuban People's Socialist Party who were attacked by the FBI for their position on Cuba and the proxy war with Russia.
